OPTIONAL TOURS

HAVANA CITY TOUR

An unforgettable city tour in a convertible classic car. During the tour, you will ride along the seaside boardwalk - El Malecón. After visiting modern Havana and admiring the fabulous architecture in the neighborhoods of Vedado, and Miramar with stops at Plaza de la Revolucion and Bosque de la Habana. Then you are off to Old Havana the historic neighborhood that date back as far as the 16th century to admire the baroque buildings that characterized Spanish colonial architecture, and concludes with a walking tour through the main streets and squares Old Havana: Plaza de Armas, Plaza de San Francisco de Asís, Plaza Vieja, and Plaza de la Catedral. (3 hours - $75 per person)

CIGAR FACTORY TOUR

Whether you are a smoker or a non-smoker you have to admit that a visit to Cuba would not be completed without investigating the world-famous cigars produced in the country. Don't miss the opportunity to learn the art of Cuban cigars making while you're in Havana with a guided tour of a Cigar Factory in Centro Havana then continue to a cigar shop where you can taste a cigar and find world-famous brands like Cohiba, Partagas, Romeo and Julieta Montecristo. (3 hours - $75 per person)

RUM MUSEUM TOUR

Start with a guide tour of the Museo del Ron (the Museum of Rum) culminating with a tasting of Havana Club, which is one of Cuba's most well-known rums, and it is ideal for making classic Cuban cocktails like mojitos and daiquiris. After completing the museum part of the tour, go bar hopping to a couple of Havana's emblematic bars, that rose to international fame during US Prohibition and experience Hemingway's famous quote "My Mojito en La Bodeguita, my Daiquiri in El Floridita." La Bodeguita and Floridita are both stops on the tour, and you can decide if you agree with the famous author's assessment of their specialty cocktails. (3 hours $55 per person)
